Vote for Governor.

We have returns, (not all official,) from all the counties in the State except Columbus, Carteret, Cherokee, Gates and Hyde, and exclusive of these the vote stands,

For John W. Ellis, For D. K. McRae,

38,087

Majority for Ellis, 15,424

The five counties to be heard from gave Governor Bragg, in 1856, a majority of 230; and we think they will give Judge Ellis about the same, making his majority in the State 15,654, or thereabouts.

We omit our table at present, but will insert it as soon as we receive the official vote.

In the Legislature we shall have a majority of about fifty on joint ballot.

GRANVILLE COUNTY .- The Democracy of Granville are entitled to more than ordinary praise. In that county Mr. McRae's friends expected to carry every thing. Venable, Cannady and other disorganizersmen once popular and in high favor-were expected to accomplish the overthrow of the Democracy; but they were met and overwhelmed, sustaining a defeat not only decisive, but shameful. Venable, the great gun of disorganization, was beaten two to one; and Cannady fared but little better. Taylor, Hargrove, Bullock and Lyon nobly led on the Democratic host, and nobly did that host respond to the battle-cry of its leaders. Venable is annihilated-Cannady's budding treason has been nipped-and the old Democratic pillar stands more firmly than ever. All

THE FIRST DISTRICT .- An esteemed friend at Willamston, Martin county, writes us that Judge Ellis's majority in the first Congressional district is about 1000--a gain of 700 on Gov. Bragg's majority two years ago. He sends us a list of the members elect to the Legislature, so far as heard from, which it is unnecessary for us to publish, as we have already given their names. He concludes as follows:

"It will thus be seen that the gallant Democracy of the First have gained three members of the Legislature, and lost none."

The First has, indeed, done well. All honor to its "gallant Democracy."

"Opposition."-Blessings on the word-maker for that word! But for it the Democratic party would be at a loss for a concentrated mode of designating its enemies. What other word, from "a" to "Zythum," the beginning and the end of Webster's "unabridged," would comprehend the fag-ends of opposing factions, and consolidate all the elements inimical to Democracy? There are Distributionists that are not Know-Nothings, and Know-Nothings that are not Distributionists; there are "Americans" that are not Black Republicans, and Black Republicans that are not "Americans;" then there are Whigs, Whig-Americans, Republican-Whigs, American-Whigs, Republican-Americans, Distribution-Whigs, Distribution-Democrats, (!) Conservative-Americans, Whig-Conservatives, Union party, People's party, Free-Soilers, Abolitionists, &c., &c., all differing in particular points, just as lumps of coal differ one from another, but all agreeing in "opposition" to Democracy-all embraced in that "opposition." A thousand blessings, say we, upon the maker of that word! It saves time and labor and perplexity in recollecting and enumerating all the names of our enemies. Nero wished that Rome had but one neck that he might sever it at blow; Democracy has the advantage of Nero-its enemies have but one head, and that is "opposition." It is a convenient word-it saves a world of trouble, and again we say, blessings on the word-maker for that word.

Forgery.-A silly letter, bearing forgery on its face, is going the rounds of the opposition press. It purports to have been written by Mr. Buchanan to Mr. English, authorizing that gentleman to buy off opponents, so as to secure his re-nomination to Congress. The Washington Union pronounces it a forgery, and every honest, intelligent man in the country knows it is a forgery. Even the Register affects to believe that Mr. Buchanan wrote it, in which it stultifies itself.

It is a maxim of law that no one shall profit by his wrong doing. The letter in question is evidently a forgery perpetrated by some Black Republican, and we object to his southern sympathizers-sympathizers in opposition to Democracy-taking such advantage of that wrong as to use it to their profit and to the injury of the Democratic party. The credulity of Horace Greely could not believe the letter genuine. No one believes it; and its use, by the opposition press, shows to what low depths a desperate and dispairing conglomeration of factions will dive, in order to bring up something with which they hope to gull the ignorant, excite the malicious and rekindle the fires of hatred to the Democratic party and to its present able Administration.

Yellow Fever in New Orleans. New Orleans, Aug. 13.—The deaths by yellow fever on Tuesday were 35, and on Wednesday 48.

A NEW KNOW-NOTHING SAINT.—The editor of the Elizabeth City Sentinel, "Merster Monn," as our neighbor of the Register calls him, is certainly a can(n)onized saint of Know-Nothingism. He is elected sheriff of Pasquotank county, and he brings out his "big cannon," ostensibly to celebrate some other "famous victory," but we shrewdly suspect that if "Meister Monn" had not been elected sheriff he would have been much less can(n)onical.

The Salem Press, also, brings out its can(n)on, evidently desirous of a saintship. Gentlemen, it seems to us you are extremely thankful for very small favors. Hear what the Press says:

"And the gallant McRae has sown the seeds of Distribution deep in the hearts of the Democratic party, and the effects of his labors will be seen and felt, in time to come, with a force that will cause the leaders of the anti-distributionists to "quake in their shoes," and their "knees to smote together," for fear of the direful retribution which will be visited upon their heads by an outraged and indignant peo-

This is the same Mr. McRae that "Meister Monn" swore.about, a few weeks ago, worse than did Uncle Toby's army in Flanders. "Meister Monn" said McRae could not get any votes in his bailiwick, and then "Meister Monn" became a candidate for sheriff, and the candidate for sheriff went for Mr. McRae, and swore just as lusting for him as he had done

But surely the Democracy of North-Carolina, after reading the foregoing extract from the Press, will become one huge Beltshazer, while "Meister Monn," as sheriff of Pasquotank, goes about like a roaring buffalo, seeking whom he may catch somebody, with knees "smoting" together, to serve a writ on,

As a printer, we renounce "Meister Monn" for having degraded his high and honorable profession. (that of a printer,) to come down to the petty office of sheriff. The printers of the State ought to hold an indignation meeting and swear at him like he did at McRae. A printer condescend to the office of sheriff! "What a fall was there, my countrymen!" We have not words to express our feelings. A printer-a sheriff-there is food for thought. May the (printer's) devil bother him.

"In the county of Nash, hitherto as hide-bound as any part of the 'Tenth-Legion,' a Distribution Democrat, in spite of a furious onslaught on him by the Democratic press, carried the day."-Register.

How is this? Messrs. Battle and Lewis, the two members elect in Nash, both declared themselves, throughout the campaign, opposed to distribution .-To which of these gentlemen does the Register allude? Does it not do him injustice? Is it possible that either of them has given the Register secret assurances of being favorable to distribution while he was declaring his opposition to it on the stump ?-We think both the gentlemen owe it to their constituency to controvert the assertion of the Register and set themselves right. Either the Register misrepresents one of them, or that one has deceived his constituents, and indulged in double dealing. Again, we ask, how is it?

The following gentlemen have been licensed to practice law in the County Courts by the Supreme Court, now in session at Morganton: Wm. C. Brown, Buncombe.

J. N. Vaughn, Pasquotank. Wm. C. Whitehead, Duplin. H. J. Coleman, Cherokee. H. A. Boone, Jackson. F. P. Axley, Cherokee. L. S. Saunders, Cherokee.

Nat. A. Boyden, Surry. The following gentlemen have been licensed to practice in the Superior Courts:

J. F. Bell, Iredeli. H. J. Gaston, Burke. H. T. McDougald, Sampson. R. A. McLaughlin, Iredell.

Wm. S. Chandler, Buncombe. RAIN.-Since our last we have had fine rains. Corn and cotton have been injured by the drought but we think the present season will insure us at least an average crop of corn. We presume the cotton is irretrievably injured, though we trust it will be better than is expected. A HOAX.—The story of Gen. Walker's invasion of Sonora is all a hoax-or in other words, a lie.-Gen. Walker is in Alabama, or was there a few days

For the Standard. MESSRS. EDITORS: I have before me the Asheville

Spectator, and in it I find the following : "Mr. Vance announced himself an independent distribution candidate-the party to which he had belonged had ceased to exist as a national organiza-What will the Register say to this? Will it not denounce it as treason? Is this the fruit of its great Know Nothing-Whig-American-distribution-opposition triumph in the Mountain District? Say, Messrs. Editors, can this be true?

I have before me the Asheville News also. In it " Mr. Vance, on many occasions, vehemently declared that he would support the administration of Mr. Buchanan." If this be so (and I presume there can be no doubt of it) what becomes of all the bragging and boasting of the Register and its clique?

I learn that Mr. Vance approved throughout the campaign of Mr. Buchanan's position on Lecompton, and disapproved Mr. Gilmer's vote against the Kansas Constitution. Now if all this be true, what becomes of the Register's denunciation of Messrs. Miller, Kerr, Osborne, Steele and others, who have taken ground with the Democratic party? If Mr. Vance redeems his pledges will the Register and its clique open upon him also? I beg you, gentlemen, to administer some better consolation to my friends Linn B. and Dr. Leach!

It is reported that Col. John A. Fagg, who is elected to the Commons from Madison county, came out openly and above board for the Democratic party. Is this so? "Treason! treason!!" no doubt the Register will exclaim. The Colonel must look out, for the whole pack will be down upon him like "a

Where is Venable? Where is Arrington? Where don't they "lead the boys? Why don't they distribute themselves around and gather up the trophies of their glorious victory? I nominate, beforehand, Venable and Linn B. for those two distribution Senators promised "my good old friend.!"

SHELTER DISTRICT.

For the Standard. SHOCCO SPRINGS, N. C., Aug. 11, 1858. MESSES. HOLDEN & WILSON-Gentlemen: Allow me, through the columns of the Standard, to call the attention of the members of the next House of Commons to the name of William Hill, of Halifax, as a suitable person to fill the position of Speaker of that body. Mr. Hill has served two terms as a member of the Legislature, first from his native county, New Hanover, and winter before last from his adopted county, Halifax. In both instances he served his constituency ably and faithfully, and at the last session showed an intimate knowledge of the rules, which, together with his quick perception and coolness, eminently qualifies him for presiding over a delibrative body.

His experience in Legislative matters, combined with his qualifications for the post of Speaker, point him out as the best selection that could be made among the members elect to the House. We have respectfully called the attention of members to the name of Mr. Hill, of Halifax, that his claims may be duly canvassed .- A MENBER of '56-'7, AND MEMBER ELECT OF '58-'9.

ELECTION OF SENATOR .- It will be perceived by the following statement that Gen. B. M. Edney is elected to the State Senate from the District composed of the counties of Henderson, Buncombe, Madison and Yancey, by a majority of 131 votes:

Edney. Yancey. Henderson, 748 Buncombe, 496 484 Madison, 487 253 16 286 720 152 Yancey, 1004 2017

Gen. Edney's majority is 131 over Dr. Yancey The General is a sound and reliable national Democrat, and will, we have no doubt, guard the interests of his constituents with vigilance and fidelity. He is a man of ability, and will exert himself to the utmost to have the section feature stricken from the Charter of the Western North-Carolina Railroad.

We supported Dr. Yancey, because we had solic ited him to become a candidate, and knew him to be a worthy and well-tried Democrat, a clever man and a thorough gentleman. But, as indicated above, we are satisfied with the election of Gen. Edney, for we believe he will make a good member, and faithfully redeem every pledge made to the people. He certainly has reason to be gratified at the vote he received at his own residence, Edneyville, which was 180 to 11. A man thus endorsed by his immediate neighbors must possess a strong hold upon their confidence. - Asheville News.

Col. John A. Fagg. - From the returns published elsewhere to-day it will be seen that Col. John A. Fagg is elected to the Commons from Madison county. Like many other prominent members of the old Whig party, Col. Fagg has been driven by patriotic impulses to act with the Democracy. He sees, and in the late canvass so expressed himself, that in the present crisis it is the duty of all Southern men to rally to the support of the Democratic party, as the only party that has the will and the power to save the Union. He identified himself fully with our party, and we have no doubt will, in good faith, redeem every pledge made to the peoole. - Asheville News.

DONE .- FIXED .- FINISHED .- DECIDED .- COUNTED OUT. AND McDowell Elected .- The Sheriffs of Biaden, Brunswick and Columbus met yesterday at Black Rock. The dispute about the Senatorship is closed at last, and Mr. McDowell is elected by a majority of 9. So ends the chapter .- Wilmington Journal, 13th.

WORTH RECORDING.-We record the fact with pleasure, that at the late election, for the first time, the vote for Governor at this place, exhibited a Democratic majority. Two years ago, Mr. Gilmer recieved 79 majority at Winston; this year Judge Ellis carries the precinct by 52 majority. - Winston

There is an instinct in the heart of man which makes him fear a cloudless happiness. It seems to him that he owes to misfortune a tithe of his life, and that which he does not pay bears interest, is amassed, and largely swells a debt which, sooner or later he must acquit.

A GOOD ONE-An Anecdote in Harper, says the Vicksburg Whig, reminds us of a story we once heard of a revolutionary soldier, who was running for Congress. It appears that our hero was opposed by a younger man, who had never "been to the wars," and it was the wont of "revolutionary" to tell the people of the hardships he endured. Says he, "fellow-citizens, I have fought and bled for my country-I helped whip the British and Indians, I have slept upon the field of battle with no covering but the canopy of heaven. I have walked over frozen ground till every footstep was marked with Just about this time one of the "sovereigns" who had become very much affected by this tale of woe, walks up in front of the speaker, wiping the tears from his eyes with the extremity of his coat tail, and interrupting him, says: "Did you say you fought the British and the Injines?" "Yes," responded old "revolutionary." "Did you say you had slept on the ground, while serving your country, without any kiver?" "Yes, sir, I did." "Did you say you had followed the enemy of your country over frozen ground till every footstep was marked with blood?" "Yes," exultantly replied the speaker. "Well, then," says the tearful "sovereign," as he gave a sigh of painful emotion, "I'll be d-d if I don't think you've done enough for your country, and I'll vote for the other man."

LORD KAMES' PROPHECY .- Lord Kames, in a conversation with his gardner one day, said: "George, the time will soon come when a man shall be able to carry the manure for an acre of land in one of his waistcoat pockets;" to which the gardner replied, "I believe it, sir; but he will be able to carry all the crop in the other pocket."

A CARD.

RALEIGH, Aug. 14th, 1858. Mesers. Holden & Wilson: You will please publish the following Certificates from gentlemen of high respectability, corroborating the statements in my Card copied in the Standard a few weeks ago. Respectfully, GEO. W. BROOKS.

This is to certify that I was in Roxborough on the 30th of June last, and saw Col. J. H. Clay walk up to Mr. G. W. Brooks and accost him, when a few words passed between them which I could not hear; then Mr. Brooks turned and started up street when he was spoken to by Jesse Munday, Esq.; they talked together but a short time when Mr. Brooks started up street again—then Col. Clay said to him, I have made my explanation, now you can make yours; to which Mr. Brooks replied, I have no explanation to make. Col.

Clay then remarked, what I said I meant for the defendant. Mr. Brooks then asked, who do you mean by the defendant? Col. Clay then asked, who he (Mr. Brooks) considered the defendant? Mr. Brooks said, that is not for me to say, but for you to decide who you meant. The same questions and the same answers were again repeated, when Mr. Brooks said, you had better not say that I was the defendant in that case, then Col. Clay street him with a large history. that case; then Col. Clay struck him with a large hickory

I saw nothing in Mr. Brooks's manner calculated to bring on a fight, nor do I believe he expected any such result.

•HENRY CARRER.

I saw the latter part of the transaction above alluded to. I was satisfied that Col. Clay intended, by his manner and mode of expression, to leave it in doubt whether he intended to apply the term "defendant" to Mr. Brooks or not.

W. J. JORDAN.

Aug. 9th, 1858.

I concur in the foregoing statement of Dr. W. J. Jordan G. W. NORWOOD.

'I was in Roxboro' on the 30th of June last. I heard a part of the conversation between Col. Clay and Mr. Brooks at the time of the assault. I think the first remark I heard was by Mr. Brooks. He said." You had better not call me the defendant." It was repeated, and Col. Clay struck him with a large stick.

I saw nothing in Brooks's manner calculated to provoke a fight. My recollection is clear that he did not advance upon him, and if he raised either hand, it was certainly, according to my recollection, not his right, which was next to me, and which hung harmlessly by his side. The blow was given very deliberately, and I thought, without provo-

August 9th, 1858. I was in Roxboro' on the 80th of June last. I heard a part of the conversation between Col. Clay and Mr. Brooks, preceding the assault. The first remark that I heard was from Col. Clay, it was, "What I said I meant for the defendant." The remainder of the conversation is correctly stated by Col. Carrer. I observed nothing offensive in M Brooks's manner, he spoke in a moderate tone of voice, was very calm, and was turning to leave when Col. Clay com-meuced the assault on him. Just before the difficulty be-gan, I saw Mr. Thos. Woods becken to Col. Clay, and the

TO THE PUBLIC.

The insult offered to me by Dr. William J. Blow, on the 16th of July, at Shiloe, Pitt county, having occurred at a public electioneering gathering, and during a political discussion, in which I took part; and inasmuch as many rumors have been circulated in reference to it, and to what has since taken place between Dr. Blow and myself in regard to it, I deem it due to myself to publish the corres-

DR. W. J. BLOW: Sin:-On yesterday, whilst Gen'l. Singeltary and myself were disagreeing as to some of the votes given in the Legislature of 1854, referred to in a circular which he was then reading from, I remarked that there were not so many Whigs voting as represented. Gen'l. Singletary replied that if there were errors, they would not change the majori-ties, offering to bet one hundred dollars upon this. I un-derstood you to say, "I will bet one hundred dollars he has told a lie." I desire to know whether this language was intended to refer to me? An early answer is expected. Yours, &c.,

WM. T. MARSH. Greenville, July 27th, 1858.

GREENVILLE, July 27th. W. T. MARSH, Esq.: Sin: -In reply to your note just received I have to say, that I did use the language attributed to me, and intended it to apply to you.

W. J. BLOW. No. 8. Greenville, Wednesday Morning, July 28th, 1858.

Sir: In your pote of last night you acknowledge the use of the effensive language ascribed to you, and that it was intended to apply to me, therefore I ask from you that satisfaction which is due under such circumstances from one gentleman to another. My friend, Gen'l W. S. Hanrahan, will hand this to you

Yours, &c., WM. T. MARSH. Dr. WM. J. BLOW.

GREENVILLE, July 28th, 1858. W. T. MARSH, Esq.: Sin:-I will give you the satisfaction demanded. Gene ral Singeltary will fix the time, place and terms. W. J. BLOW.

GEN'L SINGELTARY: DEAR SIR :- On Thursday night last, my friend Mr Marsh, received from Dr. Blow a note in answer to one from him on the day before, demanding satisfaction for offensive language used by Dr. Blow towards him, in which note Dr. Blow says he will give the satisfaction demanded; and that you would give the terms, time and place. On vesterday morning I called upon you to receive them, but you did not furnish me with them. Again to-day I had an interview with you upon the same subject with a like result. I now write to request that you will furnish me with the terms, time and place, upon which my friend Mr. Marsh will receive the satisfaction demanded. An early answer will oblige, your ob't serv't, W. S. HANRAHAN. Saturday evening, July 31st, 1958.

GREENVILLE, Aug. 2nd, 1858.

W. S. HANRAHAN, Esq.: DEAR SIR: - When you called on me on Friday last to receive the time, terms and place of the meeting between Dr. Blow and Mr. Marsh, I informed you that no further steps would be taken in the matter till after the election course seemed to be proper for obvious reasons, and I did not understand that it was then excepted to. The evening afterwards, you again called on me and insisted on know-ing forthwith, when, where, &c., the meeting was to take place. As no arrangements of any kind had been made, it was of course impossible for me to comply with your demand. I have since had an interview with Dr. Blow, and am instructed by him to say, that under existing circum stances, well known to the public at large, it is out of his power to make any preparations for the meeting till the election is over, that he will then make the necessary arrangements, &c., at once, and you shall be promptly in-

Very resp'y, your ob't serv't, G. B. SINGELTARY.

No. 7.

GREENVILLE, August 2d, 1858. GEN. G. B. SINGELTARY: DEAR SIR: - In your note of to-day in reply to the one from me to you on Saturday evening you say, that "when I first called upon you to make the arrangements for the meeting between Mr. Marsh and Dr. Blow, you informed me that no further steps would be taken until after the election, and you did not understand that it was then excepted to." I distinctly informed you at the time that my friend Mr. Marsh insisted upon as early an arrangement as possible; but that I would inform him of the result of our conference. Upon my doing so, and indeed ever since, he has urged a prompt settlement upon the terms, &c.

You also state that you have been instructed by Dr. Blow to say, "that it is out of his power to make any prepara-tions for the meeting between him and Mr. Marsh until the election is over." My friend Mr. Marsh is unwilling to concede his just rights upon this point. He was entitled im-mediately after his challenge was accepted to know the terms, time and place of meeting, As his friend I have sought to obtain them for him, thus far in vain. The delay proposed might be used greatly to his disadvantage, is un-usual and a violation of his privileges, therefore he cannot consent to it, and if insisted upon must construe it into either an evasion or an attempt to take undue advantage

Very respectfully, your obd't servant, W. S. HANRAHAN.

GREENVILLE, Aug. 3d, 1858. W. S. HANRAHAN, Esq.:

DEAR SIR: Dr. Blow instructs me to say that he adheres to the position already taken by him. What you have seen proper to say in regard to "an evasion," or "undue advantage," is deemed altogether gratuitous, particularly in view of the fact that it is now only two days to the election. The exceptions taken to the manner in which Dr. B. has accepted the challenge of Mr Marsh, are considered groundless, and the tender of satisfaction in the shape in which it has already been made, can still be accepted or declined as Mr. M. shall see fit. Please let me know distinctly what

Mr. M. shall see incourse will be pursued.

Very respectfully, your ob't ser't.

G. B. SINGELTARY.

GREENVILLE, Aug. 8d, 1858.

GEN. G. B. SINGELTARY: DEAR SIE:—I have received your note of to-day, and have submitted the same to Mr. Marsh, and while he does not admit that Dr. Blow has any right to delay giving the terms, time and place of the meeting until after the election, and protests against the course which Dr. Blow has seen proper to pursue in regard to it, yet he is willing to waive his right to require them now, and expects they will be furnished immediately after the election. Very resp'y, your ob't serv't, W. S. HANRAHAN.

Nothing further was heard from Dr. Blow or his friend until yesterday morning, when I received from the hand of Abram Cox, Esq., the following note from Dr. Blow to me: GREENVILLE, August 10th, 1858. W. T. Marsh, Esq.: Sir:—There are reasons which compel me to decline meeting you on any terms. Reasons personal to myself alone.

W. J. BLOW. I am content to submit this correspondence to the public without comment. Wx. T. MARSH. without comment.
